Chaplain Update, Emily Southerton

March 27th – April 2nd

Fifth Sunday of Lent - Jesus said to them “unbind him and let him go!”-John 11:44

This coming Sunday the lectionary reminds us that Jesus raises Lazarus, but the moral of the story is what he says to Martha: “I am the resurrection and the life” (John 11:25) The resurrection isn’t just a thing that Jesus or make happen for Lazarus but part of who Jesus is. Think about the wildflowers that spring up and poke through the decayed fall foliage of the forest floor. The wildflowers are like Jesus. They both resurrect, resurge and rest in rising-up breaking the bonds of life and death.

Join us this week for the following pastoral care services:

Monday 1:30 pm Chaplin Chat with Emily in activity room

Tuesday 10 am Devotions in activity room

Sunday 2pm Worship Service in the chapel (Channel 956)

Happy Birthday!

THE DAILY CHRONICLE

MONDAY, MARCH 27, 2023

On This Date

1912 – U.S. First Lady Helen (Nellie) Taft and Viscountess Iwa Chinda, wife of the Japanese ambassador, planted the first two cherry trees in Washington, D.C. The trees are Yoshino cherries, and they are still at the south end of 17th Street.

1958 – Nikita Khrushchev became the prime minister of the Soviet Union. An impulsive leader, he became notorious for his saber-rattling rhetoric. Within the Soviet Union, Khrushchev tried to humanize the system by releasing waves of political prisoners from the Gulag, a network of forced labor camps.

Baseball Trivia

Jackie Mitchell, a 17-year-old girl from the (otherwise all-male) Chattanooga Lookouts, struck out Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig in a 1931 exposition game against the New York Yankees.

Quote of the Day

“I started singing when I started talking. Music has been my saving grace my whole life.”

~ Mariah Carey
