IT'S APRIL FOOLS' DAY!

Although this day has been celebrated with tomfoolery since the 19th century, it is not an official holiday in any country (no kidding).

On This Date

1998 – Burger King introduced the “Left-Handed Whopper.” All the condiments were rotated 180 degrees for the benefit of left-handed customers. Thousands of customers requested the burger, while many others requested their own right-handed versions.

2005 – A zoo in Tokyo announced the discovery of a new species: a giant penguin called the Tonosama (Lord) penguin. With much fanfare, the creature was revealed to the public. As the cameras rolled, the other penguins lifted their beaks to the purported Lord but then walked away disinterested when he took off his penguin mask and revealed himself to be the zoo director.

Quote of the Day

“I don’t want this big stardom thing. I just want a good script.”

~ Annette O’Toole

Happy Birthday!

Annette O’Toole, born in 1952, is an American actress and singer. O’Toole’s breakthrough came with her role as Lana Lang in Superman III (1983). She continued to build a versatile filmography with notable roles in 48 Hrs. (1982) and Cross My Heart (1987). On TV, she starred in the acclaimed series Smallville as Martha Kent. Beyond acting, she has pursued music and co-wrote the Academy Award-nominated song “A Kiss at the End of the Rainbow” for the film A Mighty Wind (2003) with husband Michael McKean.
