Along the way, outcasts join him, and his stoic loner nature is challenged as he protects his ragtag group. A blend of gritty revenge story and heartfelt frontier drama, it’s praised for Eastwood’s direction, powerful performances, and striking cinematography, making it one of the great revisionist Westerns worth watching.

Community Life Updates, Heather Donahue

On Wednesday at 2:30pm we will be having Resident Council in the activity room. Please come to the meeting so that you can hear what is new and have a voice about things that will be coming up in the future. This Thursday is the Spring Recital for the IL residents and staff who participate in various areas. We will be going to the MPR at 2pm to watch and listen to the great singing, dancing, and piano playing that takes place twice a year here at Phoebe. On Friday, we will hold our June Birthday party for all our friends who turned another year young this month. Bring your sweet tooth and come enjoy a cupcake and ice cream to celebrate them. On Sunday the 28th from 6-8pm, the first outdoor concert featuring the Exeter Community Band will be held at the West Entrance. We ask that if your family will be joining you that they bring their lawn chairs for seating. In case of inclement weather, the concert will be moved inside and residents are seated first.

Reminder: We will be switching to signature cards as of July 1st. Staff will be printing a report at the end of each week and every time you attend 10 activities you will receive initials on your card. A card is full after 20 initials. Exceptions to activities that count toward the 10 continue to include religious, special social events, IL activities, Committees/clubs, movie nights and other activities that are independently run or deemed included by Community Life. Once you have a card full, you will be able to turn it in for any item that is available from the PC closet. There will be no cost. Once you turn in your card, you will receive a new one. You can see Community Life at times that will be determined to trade in your card.

The June store will be held at the end of the month. All Phoebe bucks will be void after that store. You can trade 20 bucks for 2 sets of initials on your card. This will take place the first week in July. Any questions feel free to ask.

My door is always open for new activity ideas. Stop on by-even if you just want to say "Hello". Or have your family members call me with any wonderful things they know you would love to do.

God Bless,
Heather Donahue
